big bad room, and this led to the present situation. A motion picture that the articles of coproduced in Court (from 15 to 20 picture) found in the prisoner's room. A bottle of oil was found in the back yard, and some charts in the yard.

Mr. Phila came to the Speedwell and asked the articles produced in Court were his and he was not sure whether taken out of his and had been found in the prisoner's room. They were all in the chest before he was taken to the State Prison. The things and things he had lost would cost him over $300.

He asked the prisoner (Gray) — Are all those things on your property?

Yes.

Are those yellow pants and that vest yours?

Yes.

—They belong to me. I got them out of Aloy's.

—What white shirts belong to you?

—Yes.

—It doesn't. I bought it in Tencoc's.

—Do these two woaden shirts belong to you?

—No. I had them made for me.

—There are four of them of this kind.

—I will bring the man forward that made them.

—It does not exceed the charts we have.

—Did you see me at the hearing when I told you that?

—I do not know.

—I will bring the man forward in my charge.

—I left them in charge of Wilson.

This morning the cause to go was pressed. I do it. I replied to Mr. Prisoner—Did I say that you to Mr. Prisoner (Gray)—You are standing back for air when you know you have been told to go. I am sure you would not go if you could to get the truth. (Mrs. A.)—I am here because I was before help him.

Q—You have been in England with the prisoner—Yes. I went up the country with him and was put in good for it. I was in the car with him and he was in the car with a usher of the Court. The witness was
